When July 15, 2015 at 3 pm

Description: Today we spoke to reporter Luis Cardenas who has been covering the Chapo escape problem. It is a joke, the fact that Chapo's escape was helped out by an inside job at the prison. There are so many traits that make it hard to believe, says Cardenas, because of how protected the prison is said to be. First, of all the noise from machinery used to open the underground and big blocks of cement. Another big unusual he mentions are the detectors supposed to detect smoke, noise, damages, etc. To close out the beliefs of reporter Cardenas and many people is that with the corruption of Mexico's government this job was planned long time ago!

When: June 21, 2015 at 4 pm

Description: Today the cast spoke to psychologist Sylvia about the circumstances in an unfaithful person. The question is whether this is something you are born with or something that creates a habit as you live in life. The psychologist explained that if someone by their own power does not want to be unfaithful, will not be plain and simple. As time goes there are more unfaithful people and the reason for this is because there are more social distractions going on in the social media that keep people interested in seeing outside their normal lives.

Description: Sexologist Roberta Medina, was interviewed via phone call, and spoke on the possibilities of faking an orgasm and how to detect such action. One of the most obvious reasons to figure if your partner is faking an orgasm, is the reaction of when a person is actually satisfied, they will have endorphin discharge, basically after the sexual action you can feel dizzy or in a weak state that makes your body weak. For example this also occurs when you are exercising, you are releasing endorphins from testosterone.

It's a development in being educated to responsibilities and direction from parents. Parents need to create a discipline for their children since they are small to create a mentality for them to develop to understand obligations.

AUGUST 11, 2015Issue: Education/Role of Latinos in the community

Program: Erazno y la Chokolata

When: August 11, 2015

Description: Today the show spoke to sexologist Dr. Monica about the limits on infidelity and the standards of actually being unfaithful, describing what can be unfaithful and what not. Monica describes that any type of infidelity is unfaithful whether it's heterosexual or with same sex. Often people don't understand morals and the meaning of being unfaithful; it can be anything from even wishing another person, mentally. It is becoming very common for women to accept other women in their lives because of bad experiences with men. There are many examples to describe a person who is being unfaithful by their character, change of schedule, in intimacy, etc. This generation has increased drastically in situations like this in both women and men drastically and it only keeps getting higher.

AUGUST 12, 2015Issue: Health Care

Program: Erazno y la Chokolata

When: August 12, 2015 at 4 pm

Description: Dra. Sofia speaks on the significance of acupuncture. It is a practice of relaxing and releasing stress by putting needle points on certain spots in your body. This procedure is not hurtful even children, infants as young as 3 years old have got treated with acupuncture due to stress, for the fact that infants that can't speak yet, can get extremely stressful due to parents not being able to communicate to their needs. Also, they spoke on the case of a doctor that was incarcerated for doing this procedure with bees, was released after many clients testified on his behalf and took a stand for him saying instead of him being held for illegal actions these were procedures that were actually helping people get healthy many of the liquids that bees carry that make it better than regular acupuncture help the body from being swollen.

Description: The show covered the topic over Mexican tourists in Egypt attacked by Egyptian armed forces, confused over the tourists being terrorists for the fact that they had been in a zone that they were not supposed to be in. There were 12 tourists in this attack, two of them which has been confirmed that are dead, and 6 in really bad conditions the other tourists have not been mentioned. The question is, was this attack in justice or did the government have enough proof to call this attack a very "humanitarian" call of duty upon the Egyptian military.

SEPTEMBER 15, 2015

Issue: Government and Politics

Program: Erazno y la Chokolata

When: September 15, 2015 at 4 pm

Description: We are just a few hours until the Mexican Independence day is celebrated at the Zocalo in Mexico City. Luis Cardenas, a reporter gave us his point of view on this controversy against La Arrolladora Banda Limon playing at this event which should mean a lot to the Mexican nation. There have been insults and disappointed fans giving their negative opinions about the band performing in this event all due to the fact that the nation is very isolated from their president Peña Nieto and the government. The people take it as disrespect for the band to perform under the circumstances the nation is facing due to the president in office. So more than just the history of Mexico's traditional celebration people see it as a favor to the president Enrique Peña Nieto.
